Hi Steve,

I hope that this message finds you well.

Can you share the African American Community Foundation Grant Writing Workshop Series events below with the Forum?

Many thanks,

Grant Writing Workshop Series Presented by AACF

The African American Community Foundation, an affiliate of FFTC, is pleased to offer a grant writing workshop series for 501(c)3 nonprofits in our community.

The seven-part series will help participants develop their grant writing skills and cultivate relationships with grant makers.

Engaging the Next Generation in Philanthropy

Join us Friday, May 21 for a conversation with Sharna Goldseker, founder of 21/64 and author of Generation Impact: How Next Gen Donors Are Revolutionizing Giving. This 90-minute workshop will offer best practices, tips and tools for engaging the next generation of donors.

21/64's Growing Goodness tool is included with registration. To ensure timely delivery of this supplementary material, please register online by May 7. After registering, you'll receive a link via email to access the event.

Celebrate Service: National Volunteer Week

In honor of National Volunteer Week, April 18-24, FFTC extends our deepest appreciation to those who generously serve and strengthen our community.

We are grateful for the hundreds of volunteers across our region who support the work of FFTC and our affiliates - serving on boards and committees, leading initiatives, awarding grants, providing counsel, and rolling up their sleeves to contribute in many other ways. Thank you for your service!
