THIS WEEK ON #KNIGHTLIVE

Join us from home to engage in live conversations about the future of our communities and democracy.

KNIGHT PUBLIC SPACES LAB

Using federal stimulus dollars to advance equity and transform our cities

Tuesday, May 11, 1 p.m. ET | 10 a.m. PT

The graphic features a black background with a decorative top border of green geometric patterns. On the left, a collage of eight black and white portraits of the event's speakers is arranged in a grid-like fashion. On the right, the event details are listed in white and green text. The Knight Foundation and Trust for Public Land logos are in the top right corner.

KF KNIGHT FOUNDATION THE TRUST FOR PUBLIC LAND

MAY 11, 1 P.M. - 2 P.M. EST
Public Spaces Lab

Kelly Jin, Knight Foundation
Lilly Weinberg, Knight Foundation
Julia Day, Gehl
Eamon O'Connor, Gehl
Kyle Kutuchief, Knight Foundation
Joe Cortright, City Observatory
Ronda Lee Chapman, Trust for Public Land
James Hardy, City of Akron

Well-designed public spaces play an essential role in connecting people to their communities and to one another. Join us for an hour-long lab focused on how cities can leverage federal dollars for public space in ways that advance equity and make communities more resilient. We'll hear from policy experts and explore a real-life example of how a city is thinking through this extraordinary moment in time.
