DISCOVERY

Terms of service: the ethics of for-profit technology in the arts

Thursday, June 3, 1 p.m. ET | 10 a.m. PT

EPISODE 23: TERMS OF SERVICE: THE ETHICS OF FOR-PROFIT TECHNOLOGY IN THE ARTS
with guest: Adriel Luis

As arts organizations shift toward using the internet as a primary platform for their work, they've become increasingly reliant on social platforms for increasing their reach and impact. But how does the pursuit of likes, hits, and retweets compromise more foundational values? Can arts organizations push to make the internet a more just and equitable place, even when they're constrained by Terms of Service? On Episode 23 of "DISCOVERY," we'll unpack the ethics of for-profit technology and its implications for arts organizations.

THE FUTURE OF DEMOCRACY
Public opinion and media research in the digital age

Thursday, June 10, 1 p.m. ET | 10 a.m. PT

EPISODE 42: PUBLIC OPINION AND MEDIA RESEARCH IN THE DIGITAL AGE

with guest: Amy Mitchell

From measuring American news consumption and media attitudes broadly, to analyzing coverage of newly-inaugurated presidents, Pew Research Center examines critical trends at the intersection of journalism and politics. What do recent Pew Research Center studies on journalism and media tell us about the state of democracy in the U.S.? How has studying the media industry changed in the digital age? On Episode 42 of "The Future of Democracy," we'll explore recent Pew Research Center work and how media research can be used to better understand our country's most pressing issues.
