Rep. Alma Adams Announces Fall Internship Program

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today, Congresswoman Alma Adams (NC-12) announced two internship opportunities in her Washington, D.C. office for the Fall 2021 semester. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply immediately; applications close on Friday, August 20, 2021. This internship includes a monthly stipend for eligible candidates.

Rep. Adams serves as vice chair of the House Committee on Agriculture; as chair of the House Education and Labor Subcommittee on Workforce Protections; and as a member of the House Financial Services Committee. She is the co-founder and co-chair of the bipartisan Congressional HBCU Caucus as well as the Black Maternal Health Caucus. Adams proudly serves the people of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County, North Carolina in the United States Congress.

“As a forty-year educator and a public servant for over three decades, Congresswoman Adams is committed to empowering current students and recent graduates to give them the real-world experience they need to succeed,” said John Christie, chief of staff for Rep. Adams. “We are excited to give the next generation of leaders the opportunity to serve their community and their country as interns in the United States Congress.”

Descriptions of the internships are available below:
