

What does trust mean to you?

When's the last time you did something amazing that didn't require trust?

Whether relying on a family member, a friend, a coworker or even yourself, trust is a critical part of our everyday lives.

At Project B.O.L.T., we believe it's all about trust. As Charlotte's go-to trust-broker, we aim to lead our community by instilling hope and building trust for each individual.

During the next four weeks, we'll be exploring the importance of trust, hope and value as it relates to our communities and invite you to join the conversation. Here's how you can help:
