Dear Steve,

Whether you have supported CCT in the past or are considering donating for the first time, we hope that you will consider making a tax-deductible donation of \$50, \$75, \$100, \$250 or more to Unite for Second Chances today. Your gift helps CCT provide opportunity for second chances to individuals and families affected by incarceration.

Second chances for people like former Center for Women resident Ebony ... Ebony spent 10 years in prison for drug trafficking charges. Before she was released in 2019, she spent the last 2 years of incarceration at CCT's residential work release dorm and, as a result, she is thriving today. Watch this short video to learn more:

Watch this 3 minute inspirational video to learn more about Ebony's journey.

Please join CCT and Unite for Second Chances with a gift of \$50, \$75, \$100, \$250 or more and help more people like Ebony. Your donation will support reentry and support services like CCT's LifeWorks!, Families Doing Time and the Center for Women, that rebuild the lives of individuals and families dealing with economic and personal difficulties resulting from involvement with the criminal legal system.

Help us reach our \$25,000 goal!

Or, mail your check made payable to CCT:
Center for Community Transitions
P.O. Box 33533
Charlotte, NC 28233

We appreciate your past support and consideration today to Unite for Second Chances, giving people and families impacted by incarceration living in Charlotte, a second chance to rebuild their lives.

Donate to CCT Today!

Sincerely,

Patrice Funderburg
Executive Director
