From shirts to electronics, donated items help people in our community on their pathway to prosperity.

Your Donations Do Good!

Donating your unwanted items not only declutters your home but also helps create a brighter future for others.

Every Goodwill success story begins with a donation. That's because the money we make from selling donated goods pays for job training courses and other life-changing career services that we offer free of charge to people who are working hard to pursue the life they want to achieve.

"To be able to get this training, free of charge, and then get career assistance and to see that outcome – I couldn't ask for anything better." - Kiyosha, who is now a Quality Assurance Software Tester for a global consulting firm after completing Goodwill's Business Analyst/QA Tester training course, which she was able to take free of charge, thanks to the community's donations and purchases.

How Can You Donate?

With more than 30 donation sites in the region, we make it convenient for you to drop off items you no longer want or need. We accept a variety of new and gently used donations including clothing, shoes, accessories, electronics, household items, furniture and more.

If you need ideas for what you can donate to Goodwill, check out our full list of items we accept. We hope to see you this giving season!
