

The folks who make it happen

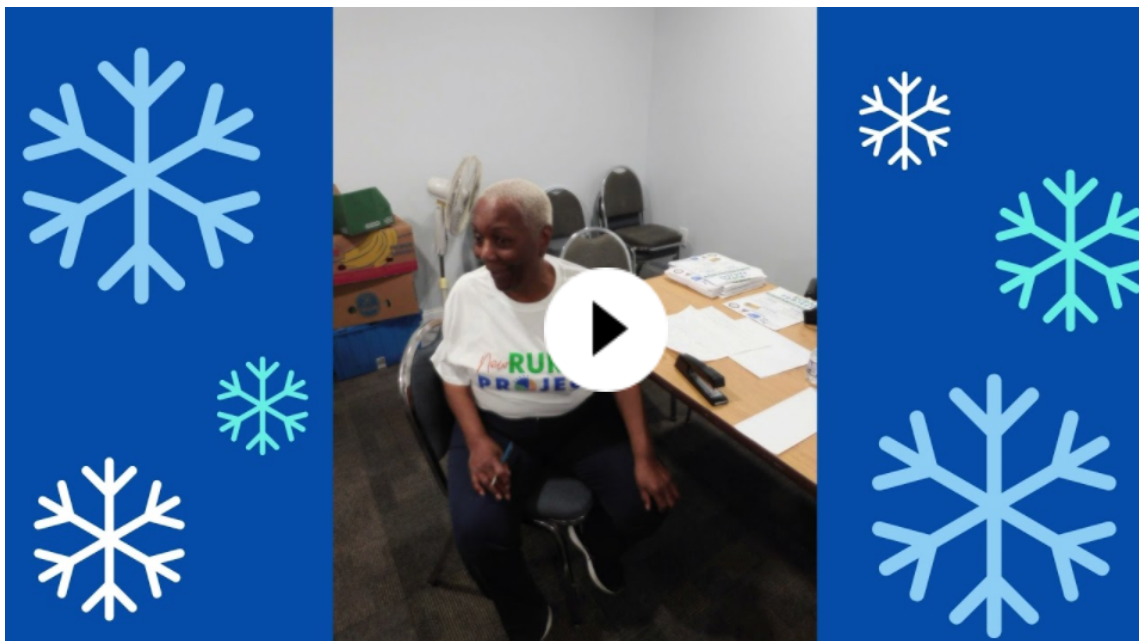

From Quanisea Moses <quanisea@newruralproject.org>
To Steve Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Reply-To <info@newruralproject.org>
Date 2021-12-15 16:53

Steve,

Last night, we held a volunteer appreciation event to honor, thank, and celebrate the amazing and dedicated folks who have helped us connect with, listen to, and serve our rural neighbors. I can't imagine trying to do everything our organization has done in the last eight months without the hard work and support of our volunteers.

Working with our incredible volunteers is one of my favorite parts of my job at the New Rural Project. Leon Gatewood, Founder of the HOLLA! Center in Anson County, Debra Graham, Founder of Araminta Ross Legacy Circle in Robeson County, and Helen Wood, volunteer and top donor from Mecklenburg County, all spoke about why they support the New Rural Project's mission and vision with their action!

Last night, I also shared what the volunteer opportunities will be for 2022 which includes on-the-ground activities like deep canvassing and volunteering at in-person events, but other volunteer opportunities include phonebanking and textbanking which can be done virtually.

When the New Rural Project began earlier this year, we knew that our work had to start with us listening and communicating with folks in rural communities, and with the help of our phenomenal volunteers, we've been successful.

As 2021 comes to an end, the New Rural Project plans to grow at a faster rate than ever, and with the addition of a Program Director to our team in 2022, we will be even better equipped to expand our reach and amplify the voices of the communities we serve. To meet our goals, we need to grow our team of volunteers— can we count on you to join us in 2022?

VOLUNTEER

Thank you for being a part of our team!

Quanisea
Regional Organizer
New Rural Project

New Rural Project is a 501(c)(4) registered non-profit organization and does not support or oppose any political candidate or party. New Rural Project can accept unlimited contributions from individuals, PACs, corporations and unions, and other 501(c)(4) organizations, but contributions to New Rural Project are not tax deductible.

New Rural Project
PO Box 77424
Charlotte, NC 28271
United States

If you believe you received this message in error or wish to no longer receive email from us, please unsubscribe.