Adams Announces "State of the District" Day Rep. Alma Adams to hold two events in Mecklenburg County on Thursday, January 27

CHARLOTTE - Congresswoman Alma Adams (NC-12) will hold two public events on her State of the District Day, Thursday, January 27, 2022. Both events are open to the public and will be livestreamed on Zoom and/or Facebook, pending changes due to COVID-19. Proof of COVID-19 vaccination and booster is required to attend both events, and pandemic protocols including masking and social distancing will be in force.

“I’m looking forward to speaking with constituents this month as we share our accomplishments and hear from the public about what still needs to be done,” said Adams.

The first event is a “Building Our Future Infrastructure Town Hall” at Huntersville Town Hall starting at 11 AM. In-person space is very limited. The venue has parking, and is accessible from the 99 Village Rider CATS bus line.

The second event is the “2022 State of the District Address” at 6:30 PM at the Dale F. Halton Theater on the CPCC Central Campus in Midtown Charlotte. Attendees will be able to park for free at Parking Deck 4, and the venue is also accessible from the CPCC stop on the CityLynx Gold Line streetcar and the 9, 14, 15, and 27 CATS bus lines.

Doors will open for both events 30 minutes prior to the start time, and both events require an RSVP.
