Subject: Charlotte Future 2040 Policy Map Second Draft Release

CHARLOTTE FUTURE 2040 POLICY MAP

Dear Charlotte Future 2040 Partners,

Last summer the City of Charlotte Planning, Design & Development Department kicked-off the Charlotte Future 2040 Policy Map process as a first step in putting the Charlotte Future 2040 Comprehensive Plan into action. Thank you to those of you who have participated in engagement in this effort to date.

The SECOND DRAFT of the Charlotte Future 2040 Policy Map is now available for review!

After releasing the first draft Charlotte Future 2040 Policy Map in October 2021, the project team collected and reviewed the community input received and completed revisions to the map, including:

1. Technical Revisions - Resulting from noticed inconsistencies, Staff review, and data corrections and updates.

2. Community-Driven Revisions - Resulting from comments heard from the community relating to Place Types preferences and local knowledge.

5 Ways to Engage

There are multiple ways to participate in this phase of engagement. Due to the current COVID situation, engagement is limited to virtual meetings. For more information, see below:

1. Online Comment Map Application: The community can review the revised map and submit comments on the Online Comment Map Application, until Friday, February 4, 2022. View Map Here
2. Virtual 30-minute Listening Sessions: From January 25 - 27, individual community members, neighborhood groups or organizations can reserve times to meet one on one with staff to discuss the map, ask questions, or address any concerns about the revised map. Register Here
3. Virtual Community Conversations: The community can register to attend the larger group presentation and conversations, occurring on Tuesday, February 1, 2022. These will be offered from 12:00PM - 1:00PM and again from 6:00PM – 7:00PM. These meetings will be recorded and available online.
