Hello Steve,

I'm Lula Dualeh, Chair of the Publicity committee for the Black Political Caucus of Charlotte-Mecklenburg. On behalf of the BPC, I wanted to share this announcement and graphic for our 2022 gala to be shared with your audience. I accessed your email address via the Tuesday Morning Breakfast website. Please let me know if there is another form I should fill out instead.

Thank you for your help!

Best,
Lula

Announcement:

Join the Black Political Caucus of Charlotte Mecklenburg on Saturday, April 30, 2022, for our annual fundraising gala. The formal affair will bring together community members, local, state and national candidates and elected officials, and friends of the Black Political Caucus of Charlotte Mecklenburg who support our mission. Dinner, entertainment, laughter, special guests, community awards, and much more will make this a memorable event. With your generous support of the gala, you're enabling the Caucus to continue the mission of informing and educating the Black community on the importance of using their voice and their vote to influence change – locally, statewide, and nationally. Advocacy, Education, Political Action, and Social Accountability are the four pillars of work that place the Caucus in the center of our communities addressing issues most relevant to the Black community. Purchase your tickets today, while they are still available! Click here: <https://www.bpc-charlotte.com/event/bpc-2022-annual-fundraising-gala/>
