Steve —

Leading up to November, Dirt Road PAC is fully focused on helping Democrats across the country get elected at various levels of government.

From defending our hard-won Senate majority by supporting exceptional Black candidates like Florida's Val Demings, North Carolina's Cheri Beasley, and Kentucky's Charles Booker who aim to make history, to gubernatorial races like Stacey Abrams' in Georgia, to city halls and county commissions, it's going to be a busy year.

Our mission is to build trust, support, and a reliable base for Democrats by engaging voters tuned out of politics in those hard-to-win red and rural areas. We'll provide grants to local grassroots groups whose organizers are doing the phone-banking, knocking on doors, and traveling down dirt roads.

The more the GOP attacks voting rights and disenfranchises voters, the more determined we are to ensure every American has the opportunity to make their voice heard in November.

We're incredibly proud that we helped play a part in flipping Georgia blue in 2021, but we can't take any seat for granted in the midterms. It's critically important that we continue to build our Democratic infrastructure to protect and expand our slim majorities in the House and the Senate and at the local and state levels.

So, Steve, we're respectfully asking — can you chip in $10 to help us ensure we have the necessary resources for the months ahead?
