Advisory: Adams Holds Virtual Black History Month Small Business Forum on Friday

Adams will share information that small businesses, and those thinking of starting a business, need to know to start and maintain a business

CHARLOTTE – On Friday, February 25 at 12:00 Noon, Congresswoman Alma Adams (NC-12) will host a Virtual Black History Month Small Business Forum on Zoom.

Interested parties can register here, or at adams.house.gov/small-business.

The Small Business Administration, The Institute, The Women's Business Center of Charlotte, and Small Business Owners will share information, resources, and insight regarding entrepreneurship. The forum will share information that small businesses, and those thinking of starting a business, need to know to start and maintain a business; and hear from other entrepreneurs who started businesses during a global pandemic. Constituents are encouraged to ask questions when they register or ask them during the virtual program.

Press can RSVP to sam.spencer@mail.house.gov.
