Steve, we have a Supreme Court nominee.

On Friday, the White House announced President Biden's nomination of DC Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson, who makes history as the first Black woman nominated to the bench in the Court's 233-year history.

Senate Republicans like South Carolina's Lindsey Graham, who voted to confirm Judge Jackson to her current post just last year, are already contradicting themselves to cynically attack her record and score cheap political points.

In this moment, it's critical that we stand with Judge Jackson and demand the Senate give full consideration to her nomination.

Add your name to Dirt Road PAC's urgent petition demanding the Senate consider and vote on Judge Jackson's nomination with all due haste today.

Thanks for standing with Judge Jackson,

Clay Middleton
