Greetings!

On behalf of St. John's Baptist Church and the McLeod Brown Fund of St. John's Baptist Church, you are invited to attend an evening with Al Staggs in his one-person play, A View from the Underside: The Legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, on Saturday, April 2 at 6:00pm in the Sanctuary at St. John's Baptist Church in Charlotte, NC.

In this play, Staggs depicts the persona of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, bringing to life of one of the great heroes of the twentieth century whose fight against Adolf Hitler during WWII eventually led to his imprisonment and execution. During the performance, the audience is brought into the prison cell where Bonhoeffer awaits execution and listens to his struggles with evil, injustice, and God.

Al Staggs was a Christian parish minister for over 20 years before beginning his career as a performing artist. He has performed at churches, synagogues, colleges, and organizations both in the United States and around the world including the Chautauqua Institution; Trinity Church of New York; the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., the International Arts Festival in Caux, Switzerland; and Riverside Church of New York.

We are thrilled to welcome Staggs to St. John's Baptist Church and to Charlotte, NC for this performance and hope you will attend!

Tickets are only $10/person and are on sale NOW at the button below.
