Steve,

I'm going to get straight to the point– we are so close to fully funding our Spring organizing program, which means we'll be in the position to execute programs, like deep canvassing, that have been proven to increase voter participation in rural communities.

We are just \$5,347 shy of our goal. So please pitch in \$25, \$50, \$100, or whatever feels right \(even a couple of bucks goes a long way\) to help us close the gap → DONATE

We're
$5,347
away from funding our organizing program!

We have a comprehensive plan to reach, educate, and engage rural residents, but we are still short of the funding to see it through. Folks have the power to sway elections and transform their communities through civic and electoral engagement, and we want to make sure every voice is heard.

That can only happen if we can continue our work communicating with our rural friends and meeting them where they are. Helen and I are so appreciative of all the support the New Rural Project has received, and we hope that you can help our organization continue its fight by pitching in today.

With gratitude,

Cynthia Wallace

P.S. Please join us virtually on April 6th from 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM ET as we celebrate the New Rural Project's first anniversary and hear from the first African American Woman NC Supreme Court Justice, Patricia Timmons-Goodson. RSVP here.
