

Maus, Whoopi, & Corona: How Holocaust History is Remembered, Reflected, & Taught in Germany & the U.S.

Tuesday, April 26, 2022

at 12:00pm

Registration Needed

A Virtual Trans-Atlantic Panel Conversation on Points of Global Education

(in alphabetical order)

Tobias Arand, Professor, History and Didactics
History

Tina Heafner, Professor, Social Studies Education
National Council for the Social Studies, 2019-2020 President

Heike Deckert-Peaceman, Professor, Educational Studies
Pedagogy - Primary Education

Emily Makas, Professor, Architectural History
Memorials and Public Memory

Jörg Keßler, University Chancellor
English

Devin McKillop, Student
Majoring in Mechanical Engineering and German Language

Yanick Knodel, Student
Majoring in Secondary Education (English & History)

Abby Moore, Librarian
Pros and Cons of Banning Books

Oliver Näpel, Interim Professor, History and Didactics
Expert on Popular Cultural Representations of the Holocaust, esp. Comics

Bianca Potrykus, Senior Lecturer
The Holocaust through German Literature and Film

Moderator, John Cox, Professor & Director
Center for Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Studies

Carolyn Hestler, Academic Counselor and Lecturer, History and Didactics & Organizers
Adriana L. Medina, Associate Professor, Reading Education

Scan to Register