This is an exciting and historic moment for our country, Steve.

The Senate just voted to confirm Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson to the Supreme Court.

This is huge.

We are overjoyed to celebrate the confirmation of Justice Jackson as the first Black woman to serve as a Supreme Court justice in United States history.

Our founder, Jaime Harrison, started Dirt Road PAC after his 2020 Senate race against Republican Senator Lindsey Graham, and less than two months after our launch, this incredible grassroots team helped flip Georgia blue, electing Senators Rev. Raphael Warnock and Jon Ossoff to the Senate and clinching our 50-50 majority.

Your efforts, including this team raising over $150,000 for Senators Ossoff and Rev. Warnock, as well as grassroots organizations like the Asian American Advocacy Fund PAC, Black Voters Matter Fund, and Left of Center PAC working on the ground to flip Georgia blue, directly contributed to Judge Jackson's confirmation vote. THANK YOU!

But as you probably know, Lindsey Graham still stood in the way. And we need to fight back against the likes of him and Mitch McConnell if we're going to defend our Senate majority this fall.

SENATOR
LINDSEY GRAHAM
voted to confirm Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson to the DC Circuit.
Now, he's flip flopping:

"I will oppose her and I will vote no." — Lindsey Graham

Bad faith actors like Lindsey Graham make our Senate function for the worse.

Graham's harassing line of questioning during Justice Jackson's Senate Judiciary Committee hearing illustrates just how important it is that we keep our Senate majority so we can continue confirming President Biden's impeccably qualified nominees such as Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson.

Here's that donate link one more time if you're able to pitch in:
