Steve,

The story of the Democratic Party of Georgia is the story of what we at Dirt Road PAC are trying to accomplish all across the country.

The Democratic Party of Georgia is a role model for all of us to follow. Following years in the political minority, Democratic leaders and thousands of staff, organizers, and volunteers mobilized across Georgia with a long-term vision in mind.

Not just to win one election, but to rebuild a base of support among folks who have too often been left out or left behind by status quo politics and politicians.

By investing in organizing at the grassroots level and partnering with other organizations throughout the state, the Democratic Party of Georgia was able to flip the state blue in 2020 for the first time in a generation — but their efforts didn't start there.

In 2018, Stacey Abrams' gubernatorial campaign won the most Democratic votes in any election in Georgia history, and Georgia Democrats flipped a congressional seat long held by Republicans. Two years later, Georgia voters flipped the state blue for President Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris, flipped another congressional seat, and flipped both U.S. Senate seats with the elections of Senators Reverend Warnock and Ossoff, the first Black and Jewish U.S. senators in state history.

That's the kind of effort Georgia Democrats are undertaking once again, and Dirt Road PAC is proud to be a part of it.

We've got to re-elect Senator Reverend Warnock, elect Stacey Abrams as governor, and defend our Democratic-held seats in Congress.
