I am pleased to have received endorsements for re-election from The Charlotte Observer and The Charlotte Post.

I am 1 of 4 Democratic City Council At-Large candidates endorsed by

The Charlotte Post described as "the most capable – and accountable – representatives for a city facing challenges from public safety to economic inequity. Each brings experience in collaboration between city government and communities during their time on council and as a moderate-to-progressive group will deliver results during a challenging chapter in Charlotte's history."

The Charlotte Observer also endorsed me for City Council At-Large and wrote, "Ajmera, who has long been a passionate voice for communities across the city, has worked hard to gain the respect of fellow council members and city officials."
