Steve,

Last night, POLITICO released a leaked draft of the Supreme Court's majority opinion in the case of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization concerning Mississippi's abortion ban.

In the draft opinion, a majority of justices rule to overturn Roe v. Wade. While the draft ruling is not final, it may be just a matter of weeks before the Court's conservative majority overturns the constitutional right to an abortion, with at least 13 states prepared to immediately ban abortion with "trigger laws" going into effect upon the Court's decision.

Let's be clear: The Supreme Court has no business intruding on the right to an abortion, a decision that should be kept between a woman and her doctor.

If this outrageous draft opinion is what the Court rules in the next few weeks, we'll have to fight harder than ever before — and support the grassroots organizations working for reproductive freedom day in and day out on the ground.

So today, Dirt Road PAC is fundraising for three incredible organizations working to provide access to reproductive care. They are:

- Access Reproductive Care—Southeast, who work to support and provide resources to women seeking abortion care in the South.
- SisterSong: Women of Color Reproductive Justice Collective, which focuses on serving women of color and helping them access equitable care.
- The National Latina Institute for Reproductive Justice, which works in states like Florida and Texas organizing for health, dignity, and justice.

If you can, rush a donation to these three organizations fighting for access to reproductive justice. 100% of your contribution will go to these groups.
