Steve,

Last week, we learned the U.S. Supreme Court intends to deliver what my opponent, Republican Sen. Chuck Grassley, has been working toward for four decades: stripping women of our reproductive rights.

The seriousness of this moment cannot be overstated. Representation matters, and I'm resolved to fight like hell to defeat Sen. Grassley, expand our Democratic majority and – when I get to the U.S. Senate – vote to codify Roe v. Wade into law.

Overturing Roe v. Wade has been a lifelong wish for Sen. Chuck Grassley. During his first term, he supported a constitutional amendment to overturn the landmark precedent protecting the right to choose, and he has voted multiple times to defund Planned Parenthood.

Worse still, he was instrumental in blocking President Obama's Supreme Court appointment of Merrick Garland, and conspiring with Mitch McConnell and Donald Trump to install the far-right justices who are now voting to overturn Roe v. Wade. Sen. Chuck Grassley bears direct responsibility for the end of federal abortion protections – and we have to hold him accountable.

We will hold him accountable by defeating him at the ballot box. We will hold him accountable by electing a 33-year-old woman to his seat – a woman who has ALWAYS fought for the right to choose. We'll hold him accountable by blocking his extremist party from a majority, and we'll deliver on federal legislative protections for the right to choose.

This is why representation matters, Steve, and we can beat this guy! Only 27% of likely Iowa voters said they want to reelect Sen. Grassley, and he's facing record-low approval. Please, I need you with me. Split a donation between Dirt Road PAC and my campaign right now to defeat Sen. Chuck Grassley, expand our Democratic majority and protect the right to choose.

Thank you. In moments like this, your support means everything to me.
