News You Can Use

ULCC's mission is to advocate for and equip African Americans and all under-served communities with the tools to achieve social and economic equality.

WE STAND WITH BUFFALO

The National Urban League President and CEO Marc H. Morial and The Buffalo Urban League President Thomas Beauford, Jr., issue the following statement in response to the racially-motivated mass shooting at a Buffalo supermarket in the heart of its predominantly Black East Side community: Our hearts and deepest sympathies are with the families who have lost loved ones to another senseless act of racial violence.

As white supremacists hatred has raged out of control over the last few years, social media and gun merchants exploit it for profits, while atrocities and trauma continue to be inflicted on communities of color.

We call on state and federal law enforcement to pursue hate crime charges against the shooter and to pursue policies to prevent such tragedies in the future.

Until we as a nation begin to confront the twin threats of domestic extremism and reckless gun policies as the grave crises they are, innocent people will continue to pay the deadly price.

THE DIVERSITY CONVERSATION

PARTNERS

Diversity, equity and inclusion is a prominent topic for many organizations and seen as a valuable way to drive business results and better outcomes.

This conversation is focused on enhancing our diversity quotient no matter what background we come from or what events we have experienced. The goal is to become a more effective asset in the movement of changing the world for the betterment of all.

PARTNERSHIP MOMENTS

Urban League of Central Carolinas was thrilled to be a part of the ribbon cutting and dedication for the new First National Bank Tower in Uptown.

ULCC's President and CEO, Teddy McDaniel, was on hand to receive a $10,000 check presentation given by First National Bank in alignment with our mission to advocate for and equip African Americans and all underserved communities with the tools to achieve social and economic equality

HEARTS OF CABI

Every woman who walked through the doors of The Good Life, entered with a smile, ready to embrace everything the good life has to offer.

A sister from the Urban League was there to greet them, ready with a smile of her own. "Hi! I'm so glad you came. Read this and sign-in. Then we'll get you started with one of the stylists."

On the surface, it seems sisters are smiling about free "shopping" for cute clothes with the stylists from the Heart of Cabi Foundation. But watching closely, it is clear this is a day of preparation and pampering.

A steady stream of women flows through the doors. There are mothers and daughters taking pictures together. Best friends wowed by the frilly, fun décor adorning the room. Work colleagues and classmates recognizing one another anew. Volunteers, professional make-up artists, caterers, journalists and community partners bustling and busy. Some just watching. Most relaxing and smiling through new make-up, with new clothes and maybe a few new friends ...
