

Studies show that 95% of people with convictions will live with the barriers that come with them for the rest of their lives because of the difficulty of getting their records cleared, according to the Black and Brown Cannabis Guild. These convictions can restrict access to housing, employment and voting rights long after sentences have been served.

Expungement Clinic Schedule Third & Fourth Quarters 2022

For: Mecklenburg County Citizens
Must: Pre-Register On-line

Studies show that 95% of people with convictions will live with the barriers that come with them for the rest of their lives because of the difficulty of getting their records cleared, according to the Black and Brown Cannabis Guild. These convictions can restrict access to housing, employment and voting rights long after sentences have been served.

Mecklenburg Council of Elders will host a series of Expunction clinics at Plaza Road Academy on Saturdays in July 22, Oct 22, and Jan 23, from 10:00am – 3:00pm to help Charlotte/Mecklenburg citizens get low-level crimes expunged. The expungement clinics will take place at 1000 Anderson St. Charlotte, NC 28205

YOU MUST HAVE PRE-REGISTERED ON-LINE BEFORE ATTENDING

Pre-registration is required, and organizers are also asking those who attend to bring identification and continue practicing social distancing. Roughly 120 people have signed up already.

Organizers say especially during this time of heightened cost for basic living, rent and now gas, it has become a priority to help get people back on their feet and positioned to vie for better job opportunities, even to start their own businesses.

Registration for future expungement clinics can be completed at www.Mecklenburgcoe.org

Register by June 3rd for clinic in July, /by August 22nd for clinic in Oct and by Nov. 14th for clinic Jan. 21st
