Here's the latest, Steve. With hours left to meet tonight's fundraising goal, I'm still falling $1,932 short. Please, let me explain why this is so important:

I'm neck and neck with Marco Rubio in the race that will determine Senate control, and CNN contributors like James Carville have "zero doubt" that I CAN win.

The problem is that the GOP is stacking the cards against me because they KNOW this race is Democrats' best chance to expand our Senate majority. Far-right outside groups are dumping millions into Florida, and the chair of the RNC attacked me personally.

I'm looking at my fundraising numbers now, and I won't be able to defend myself from these GOP attacks if I don't reach my goal in the next few hours.

Missing this goal and falling behind in this race could mean handing the Senate right back to Mitch McConnell, so I have to ask: Will you split \$5 right now between Dirt Road PAC and my campaign to help me defeat Marco Rubio, flip Florida blue and expand our Senate majority?
