2022 Inaugural Men's Health Symposium

Dear Stakeholder,

On Wednesday, June 29, from 10 AM to 11 AM, our office is hosting our 2022 Inaugural Men's Health Symposium. Unfortunately, men do not seek healthcare at the same rate as women and children. This symposium will raise awareness about healthcare for men and address diseases that disproportionately impact men, such as cancer, heart disease, diabetes, and depression. Addressing these issues for men in our district is a priority for me.

Our discussion will focus on encouraging men to practice a healthier lifestyle in observance of National Men's Health Month. Healthcare is a priority and one of my "4H" legislative priorities.

June is National Men's Health Month, so it's the perfect time to talk about these pressing health issues. I hope you can join us at 10 AM on Wednesday, June 29 for this important conversation.

Sincerely,

Alma
