You're invited:

Black Philanthropy Symposium

Please join us for a symposium designed to assist nonprofits with making connections and identifying resources to strengthen their organizations.

Participants will hear from leaders in the field and gain tools to be better equipped to pursue funding opportunities and grow their programs. The day will conclude with a discussion featuring a diverse panel of local funders.

The symposium is open to both current and potential Foundation For Black Philanthropy grant recipients, and is presented in conjunction with Black Philanthropy Month.

Topics and speakers include:

- Grant Writing to Storytelling with Keva Womble, Foundation For The Carolinas
- Board Development with Deviré Robinson, Foundation For The Carolinas
- Black Social Capital Collaborative – How to Get Involved with Harold Rice, Ada Jenkins Center, and Chrystal Joy, The Lee Institute

Funder Panelists include:

- Tonya Jameson, Leading on Opportunity
- Sam Smith, Unite Charlotte
- Charles Thomas, Knight Foundation
- Elizabeth Trotman, Foundation For The Carolinas
- Ayanna Wakefield, Foundation For The Carolinas

Tuesday, August 2 | 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Johnson C. Smith University Tech Innovation Center
100 Beatties Ford Road • Charlotte, NC 28216
