Steve,

We have a new member of the New Rural Project team who I want you to meet: Jare is our phenomenal new Fellow joining us this summer!

We are so lucky to have him on our team, and we're honored to watch as he hones his leadership skills while working to better our community and make real, lasting change in rural North Carolina. Jare's passion and enthusiasm are as contagious as they are motivating! I hope you will join other supporters to help fund positions like Jare's - You can make a huge impact by contributing to the New Rural Project today to fund organizer positions and the organizing programs that we count on to knock doors, host events, and spread our message.

If you would like to volunteer - I hope you'll join him, Nisea, and the New Rural Project team virtually at our weekly Deep Canvass Phone Bank this Thursday, July 21st.

If you can't make it to this week's phone bank, don't worry. With the primaries behind us and the General Election now on the horizon, we're pushing the envelope to bolster our work around education and motivation. Our programs have undoubtedly been successful in reaching, educating, and engaging infrequent rural voters, but we need to do more. We want to make sure every voice is heard in November, but that can only happen if we have the resources necessary to continue connecting with our rural friends and meeting them where they are.

Thank you for being a part of our team!

Cynthia Wallace
Executive Director, New Rural Project
