

Civility Localized Newsletter September 6, 2022

From Elizabeth at Civility Localized <hello@civilitylocalized.com>
Sender Elizabeth at Civility Localized <hello@civilitylocalized.com>
To <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Date 2022-09-06 08:00

ELIZABETH FLEMISTER, SHE/HER
CONTENT SPECIALIST

#EngageDifferent

SEPTEMBER 6, 2022

Civility Localized Newsletter

Welcome to a new month! September is filling up with ways to get involved and we are eager to share them with you.

Between the Charlotte Arts + Culture Survey & Community Conversation Guides, and our very own Civility Localized feature presentation at VPET 2022, there will be plenty of ways to get involved and make your voice heard this month.

Are you ready to get involved? Let's dive in!

All the best,

Elizabeth Flemister (she/her/hers)

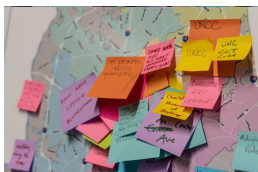

Content Specialist at Civility Localized

Client News:

Arts and Culture are for Everyone

Whether you like creating art or enjoying it, you can benefit from the Charlotte Arts and Culture Plan. The City of Charlotte wants to hear your voice to ensure the plan truly reflects the Charlotte area. They want to hear from all communities and backgrounds, all generations, neighborhoods, and abilities. The City of Charlotte will hosted kick off events the week of August 23rd. Check out the photos below. They will also host numerous events for various arts sectors during the month of September. Click the link below to Learn more and RSVP!

Take the Survey

Fill out a survey to share your feedback about needs and priorities for local arts and culture, and to tell us how you participate in the creative sector.

Take the survey
Tome la encuesta

Host a Community Conversation

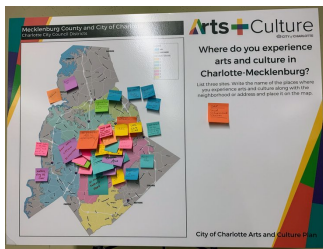

Take the conversation about local arts and culture to your friends, family, neighbors, and community. Download this discussion guide to host a conversation today:

Download the conversation guide
Descargue la guía de conversación

After your conversation, scan or snap a photo of responses and notes, and email to us at:

outreach@cltartsandculture.org

Learn More and Register for an Event

Conference on Virtual Public Engagement for Transportation Planning

September 28 - 29 | 10am - 4pm Eastern

REGISTER NOW

AICP CM credit available with thanks to:

conference.metroquest.com

Utilizing Vision Zero Principles to Engage Diverse Communities: Charlotte's Safer Streets Survey Case Study

The 2022 Conference on Virtual Public Engagement for Transportation Planning will take place on September 28th and 29th. Join the planning industry's top virtual conference as they look at the future of public engagement.

Christine Edwards, Founder and Principal Consultant at Civility Localized, and Khryste Bullock, Project Manager at Civility Localized will present together on the topic of equity and diversity in public engagement on September 29th at 12:15 pm. Learn how industry leaders reach underserved and marginalized communities, break down barriers to engagement, and envision what's next in diversity, inclusivity, and accessibility.

Use code FriendsofVPET22 for 20% off registration at the link below:

20% Off VTEP Conference Registration

Serena Williams at the US OPEN

As big fans of Serena Williams and all that she's accomplished, we've been watching closely as she performs, perhaps for the last time, at the US Open in Queens, New York. Bringing style, excellence, and grace to the courts at Arthur Ashe Stadium, her legacy as the greatest of all time is one for the ages.

A titan of both tennis and industry, Williams is an inspiration to us all! Join us in celebrating her as a Black woman, as a mother, as an entrepreneur, and as an athlete all month long. We'll leave you with a quote from the GOAT, because we love pondering pearls of wisdom from the icons of our time.

“ YOU HAVE TO BELIEVE IN YOURSELF
WHEN NO ONE ELSE DOES. ”

*Serena
Williams*

Thank you for reading & sharing.

#EngageDifferent

Subscribe to our Newsletter Here

Civility Localized, 436 East 36th Street, Charlotte, NC, USA

Unsubscribe