Introducing TutorCharlotte.org

We're excited to introduce TutorCharlotte.org, a new community initiative to help connect volunteers with effective tutoring organizations in Charlotte-Mecklenburg. It's a collaborative effort by Augustine Literacy Project – Charlotte, the Charlotte Executive Leadership Council, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, Heart Math Tutoring, Helps Education Fund, and Read Charlotte to meet a community need for tutors.

Helping our children recover from the impact of the pandemic on their learning will take the work of our whole community. We hope to reach every corner of our community with this effort and connect more volunteer tutors with students than ever before, to help get our children back on track.
