

2023 Mayor's Mentoring Alliance (MMA) Awards nominations open until 12/15/2022 at 11:59p

From Mayor's Mentoring Alliance <Mentoring@ci.charlotte.nc.us>
To Mayor's Mentoring Alliance <Mentoring@ci.charlotte.nc.us>
Date 2022-11-22 16:26

2023 MMA Awards Nominations Flyer. City of Charlotte..pdf (~545 KB)

Good afternoon,

Save the date!! The 2023 Mayor's Mentoring Alliance (MMA) Awards will be held on Thursday, January 19, 2023, in the evening. More details to come.
Nominations for the 2023 MMA Awards are open and will close on Thursday, December 15, 2022 at 11:59 p.m.

Nomination Eligibility Criteria:

- Individuals and mentoring organizations nominated must live or work in and serve the residents of Charlotte, North Carolina.
- Nominees must not have received an MMA Award in the same (or similar) category within the past two (2) years.
- Nominations must be submitted for work done by individuals and mentoring organizations within the year 2022.

2023 MMA Awards Nominations Link: <https://bit.ly/2023MMAawards>

2023 MMA Award Categories:

Mentor of the Year

This nominee has been an exemplary mentor to a young person or youth for a minimum of two (2) years. This inspirational mentor continually raises the bar by providing outstanding professional and personal development opportunities and sound guidance. When compared to their peers, evidence of commitment, accessibility, leadership, and effectiveness are evident. They hold mentee(s) to high standards, articulates clear expectations and follows through on commitments.

Mentee of the Year

This nominee is a young person or youth that invests the time to develop a strong relationship with their mentor by prioritizing commitments, responsibilities and learning opportunities. They engage actively with their mentor and/or organization, willingly attends sessions/meetings, and completes tasks with excellence and a positive attitude. They respectfully consider guidance, feedback, and suggestions.

-

Best Collaboration in Mentoring

These nominees/organizations accomplished significant results by pooling resources, working with other organizations, and/or by connecting with the community in a meaningful way. The outcome(s) of the collaboration resulted in improved outcomes in mentoring, such as increasing diversity or inclusion in mentoring, obtaining shared goals in less time/effort, exceeding fundraising objectives, or achieving broader depth in mentoring practice. Ideal nominees have established a collaboration within the last 2 years. All agencies involved in the collaboration should be included in the nomination submission.

Grassroots Mentoring Organization of the Year

This nominee accomplished significant results as a small agency, which serves up to 150 youth. This agency has allowed its passion for mentoring youth to drive its mission through partnerships, outcomes and/or growth, and has filled gaps in Charlotte's mentoring landscape.

-

Peer Mentor of the Year

This nominee is a young person or youth that serves as a mentor to their peer within a mentoring organization and invests the time to develop a strong relationship with his/her mentee by providing sound guidance. This person also relates to their mentee and holds them to high standards, articulates clear expectations, and follows through on commitments.

-

Educator Mentor of the Year

The nominee is an educator serving youth within Charlotte-Mecklenburg, who also serves as an exemplary mentor to their students. They helped develop and sustain effective and meaningful relationships with youth by offering sound guidance inside and outside of the classroom.

Best,
Tiffany

Tiffany Johnson

MAYOR'S MENTORING ALLIANCE & OUT OF SCHOOL TIME PROGRAM MANAGER | SOUTHEAST COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT LIAISON

HOUSING & NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICES

City of Charlotte
600 E. Trade St. Charlotte, NC 28202
MOBILE: 704-996-4992
tiffany.johnson@charlottenc.gov

