Giving TUESDAY

& YOU

Giving Tuesday is a global generosity movement where people are empowered to make a difference in their community and support organizations that are near and dear to their hearts.

When you support the Council for Children's Rights, you make an immediate difference for thousands of children in our community by helping us:

- Increase educational access for students with disabilities
- Bring children home safely after a mental health crisis in a locked facility
- Hold institutions accountable to provide children with critical resources instead of charges in court
- Restore safety, stability, and security for children after high-intensity custody battles and keep them out of unsafe or unsuitable environments

Your gift gives children a voice when they need it most. Please donate today to help us reach our $10,000 goal to increase our impact for local youth. You can also support by sharing our fundraising page with your friends and family or even starting your own fundraiser. Thank you for being part of our community!
