Giving is sweet and simple this year! You don't need any wrapping paper or bows to make a difference in the lives of our community's children. In fact, it only takes a few clicks to ensure children have the lifelines they desperately need.

Your gift immediately makes an impact in the lives of children you see around town every day. It makes sure a pair of siblings spend the holidays in a home that makes them feel safe. It ensures a fourth grader has access to the special education services they need to succeed. It helps a child in legal distress receive counseling and resources instead of time in youth prison. There is no limit to the good your gift can do at the Council for Children's Rights.

The children we help often don't have a say in the situations they are put in. You can give them a voice and a powerful team in their corner by donating to Council today.
