ESSERMAN-KNIGHT JOURNALISM AWARDS

Open Call for Nominations

The fourth annual Esserman-Knight Journalism Awards are thrilled to accept nominations of outstanding investigative and public service reporting in South Florida in its fourth consecutive year.

The awards include a $10,000 first prize, a $5,000 second prize, and honorable mention awards of $1,000.

Entries should serve the public by holding the powerful to account, shining a light on a pervasive or underreported community problem, or breaking new ground on an issue. The work will be judged by the quality of analysis and storytelling, rigor of newsgathering, inclusion of community voices, and the impact on public understanding or action.

Nominate a journalist or team of journalists whose work was published in 2022 by visiting essermanknightawards.org.

Deadline is January 31st, 2023.

The Esserman-Knight Journalism Awards have recognized some of South Florida's most impactful investigative stories and have become an honored tradition in the local journalism scene.

Some of last year's memorable, award-winning stories were "*House of Cards, How decades of problems converged the night Champlain Towers fell*" by the Miami Herald investigative team, and the "*Tallahassee Takeover*" podcast series by Daniel Rivera for WLRN.
