Hello,

It's that time of year again... Alliance Center for Education will have its 2nd Annual Health and Community Affair event on Saturday, March 25, 2023, from 10 am to 2 pm. We are inviting you to be a vendor and share your agency's information with the community. The goal of this event is to make resources easily accessible to families.

If you received a flyer previously with a QR Code, the code directed you to my email address. I am including in this email a google link for you to register. Looking forward to working with some of you again and working with new vendors. The RSVP link is below. I will share the location of the Health and Community Affair in February. Thank you in advance for showing up and showing out for our families!
