Steve, I'm not sure you're still meeting, but I've moved to a continuous care community & can't get there easily. I'd appreciate it so much if you'd do what's briefly suggested below & let me know who else you'd suggest I contact. Stay well. Miss you--& thank you for your past help.

Hugs,
 Short Sheila (Peltzer) from Charlotte (KidsNeed2Parents)

Subject: Let NC Legislators Know: 2023 Is The Year of Shared Parenting!

As the 2023 legislative season gets started in North Carolina, we need to let legislators know that 2023 is going to be the year of shared parenting in North Carolina. Please use the tools at the link below to welcome your legislators back in session and let them know that they will be hearing about shared parenting this year. All you have to do is enter your information and you will be presented with a list of your legislators as well as an easy email template that you can either use as is or edit and then press send.

Thank you for your continued support of NPO and shared parenting. Big things are coming to North Carolina this year.
