Steve,

As an honorary board member of New Rural Project, lifelong rural advocate, and former Congresswoman, I am excited to extend a personal invitation to you to join us in celebrating our organization's 2nd birthday. Our Birthday Bash will take place in two locations: Mecklenburg County on April 20th from 6-7:30 p.m. and Moore County on April 27th from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

RSVP

At both events, you will have an opportunity to hear from amazing Black men who are already impacting their community after attending our 2022 Barbershop Conversations: Fruitful African American Discussions on Empowerment (F.A.D.E.).

At the Mecklenburg County event on April 20th, we will be joined by Samuel Cole and Allen Jackson who started the Sandhills Voter Initiative, a grassroots civic organization, after attending our Anson County F.A.D.E series.

They will share their experiences and insights on how our organization has empowered them to make a difference in their community.

Similarly, at the Moore County event on April 27th, successful graduates of our Scotland County F.A.D.E series, Jerome John and Jeremy Baker will speak. After completing our F.A.D.E. program, Jerome was appointed by the Scotland County Board of Commissioners to the City of Laurinburg's Planning and Zoning Board. Jeremy was appointed to the Scotland County Tourism Development Authority Board. These success stories testify to the positive impact of our organization's efforts.

Our birthday bashes will also provide a chance for you to learn more about our current and future work, and how you can get involved in our efforts to increase electoral engagement of rural folks of color to positively change our local communities, our state, and ultimately our nation.

Sponsorships for the event are also available at \$125, \$250, \$500, \$1000, and \$2500. Tickets for the event are \$50, but Young People can purchase tickets for \$25. Your support will go a long way in helping us continue our mission to make a difference in rural communities in North Carolina.
