Conference attendees: Please plan to join us for the The Future of Fundraising with Twana Wellman-Roebuck!

This dynamic training will be led by industry expert and our very own, Twana Wellman-Roebuck. Mrs. Wellman-Roebuck has more than 25 years of fund development experience including grant writing, corporate fundraising and employee-based solicitation at the workplace. In 2012, Twana launched ESR's first Capital Campaign in the history of the organization, successfully raising nearly $2.8 million dollars over a 2-year period. This training will occur off site at the local CAA, Experiment in Self Reliance.

Conference attendees: Please plan to join us for Sip and Paint with Stephanie Cox!

Stephanie Cox is owner and CEO of "Creative Arts by Stephanie," a privately owned mobile sip and paint business that provides professional pre-drawn canvas portraits to represent the vision of her clients. Stephanie is a native of New Bern, NC, and a leader in the Community Action network. While passionate about art, Stephanie is equally as passionate about serving her community.

Stephanie is the CSBG Program Director for Coastal Community Action, Inc. out of Newport, NC.

Important Medical Note

Proof of full COVID-19 Vaccination is required for all in-person attendees at the conference

Exceptions will be made for those who cannot receive the vaccine due to medical conditions only. If you have a medical condition that prohibits you from receiving the vaccine, a letter from a physician on their letterhead must be provided. Details on the individual condition are not required, but the letter must be from a physician that you are unable to receive the vaccine due to medical issues. Also, those with the medical exception will be required to provide proof of a negative test no older than 72 hours prior to arrival. Please email your exemption letter to registration@nccaa.net.
