Today is the last day of our fiscal year and Charlotte's children need your help! You can make sure that a pair of siblings spend their summer in a home that makes them feel safe, that a fifth grader receives appropriate special education services in the new school year, and that a child in legal distress receives counseling and resources instead of hefty punishments. It only takes a few clicks to change lives and give children the lifelines they desperately need.

Our children don't often have a say in the situations they are put in. You can give them a voice and a powerful team in their corner by donating to Council today:
