CATS DBE Program Unlocks Opportunities
in Charlotte for Disadvantaged Businesses.

Expand your horizons and make a difference in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg community with the Charlotte Area Transit System's (CATS) Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) program. As a DBE, you may have the opportunity to provide essential goods & services supporting CATS in delivering public transit services to the Charlotte-Mecklenburg region.

CATS invites minority, women, and socially and economically disadvantaged businesses to become DBE certified.

Whether you specialize in:

- Architectural landscaping
- Legal services
- Structural steel
- Electrical work
- Geotechnical services
- Interior finishes
- Engineering
- Welding
- Construction

Here at CATS, there may be a place for you.

Access new opportunities, connect with professionals, and receive the support you need to succeed. Join us in building a stronger community.

NIA Construction Apprentices Needed Aspire Construction Protégé Program

NIA Construction, a Charlotte-based African American-owned construction company, has developed a construction apprenticeship program called Aspire Construction Protégé Program for individuals from underrepresented and disenfranchised communities interested in construction careers. NIA realizes the structural barriers in the construction industry, especially at the management level, and is committed to helping eliminate them and the disparities they create by offering a robust apprenticeship geared toward construction management that will prepare individuals for entry and success in the commercial and residential building trades.
