Dear Neighbors and Friends,

This week has been challenging, but I want to express my gratitude to the organizations, elected officials, and community leaders who have shown their support for my re-election. It is through challenges that we see our strength, resilience, and persistence, and I will not stop fighting for District 4.

My leadership is about representing the voice of the people and ensuring that your voice is heard and represented. Your overwhelming support has reminded me that there is still work to do, and I will keep pushing forward, even when facing obstacles.
