Hello Steve Johnston,

I hope this email finds you in the best of spirits. I'm Amy Vavra, the Director of Advancement at the Council for Children's Rights, and I'm reaching out today because we need your help.

Each day we strive to ensure that every child has a safe and supportive environment to grow and thrive. We're dedicated to defending and advancing the rights of children, and with your support, we can make this vision a reality.

But we can't do this alone. We need your help.

By making a donation today, you join other supporters in being a beacon of hope for children who need it the most. Whether it's providing legal assistance to ensure a child's rights are protected, or offering guidance to families navigating complex systems, your support makes a real, tangible difference.

Donate Now!

We also want to let you know about our Monthly Giving Program. By pledging a monthly gift, you become a constant source of support for children. You become a guiding light that shines steadily, providing the resources we need to continue our vital work. From the donation page, you can mark it as a recurring gift, and we can count on your weekly, monthly, or quarterly support.

Note: Many of our supporters give stock, grants from Donor-Advised Funds, or make a Qualified Charitable Distribution, all of which are more "tax-smart" than giving cash. We encourage you to explore these options as a way to maximize the impact of your generosity. Please contact me at amyv@cfcrights.org for more information.

We understand that everyone's situation is different, but please know that every donation, no matter the size, is deeply appreciated and makes a significant difference in the lives of the children we serve.

Thank you for standing with us and for your unwavering commitment to children's rights. Together, we can create a brighter future for every child.

Best Wishes,

Amy Vavra
