I am a bit late getting this message out to you because of the overwhelming number of calls, texts, social media messages and emails I received. Please excuse me for that.

I am encouraged by all the messages to keep going, to run again, not to give up, and most importantly that you still believe in me.

I am so grateful for all 31,542 votes, every donation, every door knocker, every lit dropper, every meet-n-greet, every interaction, and every endorsement.

My core team carried me all the way through and for that I am so grateful!
Samantha, Treyvon, Georgett, Jordan, Shara, Erlene, Alan, Shawn Sr. and Shawn Jr.

Team Haynes!
Thank you!

I came home on election night to this!

The Man in the Arena

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat."
