We hope you'll join us for CFCR's second annual A New Day for Children spring luncheon! You are an important part of our community and we hope you will join us to raise awareness of the unique challenges facing children and how we can address them together. We will highlight how our work has changed lives, share policy initiatives that benefit all children in our community, and celebrate people like you who help us make real and lasting change for children in the greater Charlotte area.

The luncheon is free to attend, but you can help us kickstart our event by donating today:
