World War II Summer Teachers Conference

The 9th Annual Friends of the National World War II Memorial Teachers Conference will be held this summer, July 15-19 in Washington, D.C. The 2024 conference will have the theme of "WWII: The Transformation of America" and will feature sessions from fellow educators and WWII experts, site visits around DC, discussions with WWII veterans, and a remembrance ceremony at the WWII Memorial. Best-selling author and Friends' Resident Historian Alex Kershaw will serve as the conference's host throughout the week. The conference is FREE, including room, board, and up to $400 for a travel stipend.
