Read Together: Meet the Anderson family

Meet the Anderson family! Reading is a regular part of their routine, but a part that parents Jenni and Devin aim to keep interesting and fun for their two young children.

Read more about their favorite activities and ways to build reading together into their days in our latest blog.

Get ready for spring break with fun reading tips

With spring break around the corner for Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools students, it's a great time to visit ReadTogetherCLT.org for fun tips on family reading time over the break.

You can find tips for your child's age group, as well as information on local book access programs.

Hornets Book Bus helps spread Read Together message

The Charlotte Hornets Book Bus is helping to spread the Read Together message far and wide!

Check out these amazing pictures from a recent school visit. We love seeing kids' excitement and enthusiasm as they pledge to become reading superheroes!
