Steve,

It's time to raise our voices and celebrate because the New Rural Project is turning three! 🎉 Join us for our "Three Cheers for Three Years" birthday bash on April 29 from 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. at the home of former Charlotte mayor, Jennifer Roberts.

RSVP

We are thrilled to be marking this milestone and want you to be a part of the festivities. Over the past three years, we've been on an incredible journey, building the foundation that has allowed us to carry out our mission of engaging young and marginalized residents in rural communities to amplify their voices through increased civic and electoral engagement.

Here are just a few highlights from our journey together:

- Hosting COVID-19 vaccine pop-up community events to ensure access to vaccines for all
- Conducting polling and focus groups to better understand the needs of our communities
- Engaging in Front Porch Conversations Deep Canvassing to connect with voters on a personal level and drive change from the ground up
- Facilitating Barbershop Conversations (FADE) and Beauty Salon Conversations (CURLS) to foster dialogue and engagement
- Inspiring and celebrating the victories of several municipal elected officials in 2023 who share our commitment to rural communities

RSVP

These achievements wouldn't have been possible without the support of incredible individuals like you who share our passion for creating positive change in rural North Carolina.

Join us as we celebrate our accomplishments, reflect on the progress we've made, and look ahead to the future with excitement and optimism.

Best regards,
