Steve,

As someone who has always been passionate about community engagement and empowerment and who ran for Congress across several rural counties, I am excited to extend a special invitation to you. Please join me at my home on Monday, April 29th, for a celebration at the "Three Cheers for Three Years" event benefiting the New Rural Project.

SECURE YOUR SPOT!

Even as a former mayor and county commissioner of an urban area, I know the importance of engaging rural residents and voters. Our urban and rural communities are interdependent, and support success for each other on everything from air quality to housing. The work of the New Rural Project over the past three years has been instrumental in amplifying the voices of young and marginalized residents in rural communities through increased civic and electoral engagement.

I am honored to open my home on April 29 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. to gather with like-minded individuals who are committed to building stronger, more vibrant communities across North Carolina.

Let's come together to celebrate the spirit of community, reflect on our shared values, and renew our commitment to making a positive impact in rural North Carolina.

Best regards,
Jennifer Roberts
Former Mayor of Charlotte, NC
