friend,

In every corner of the world, Obama Foundation program participants are bringing change home to their communities.

From working to restore human rights to forming connections through music, we're inspired by these changemakers who are using their expertise and lived experiences to bring about positive change.

We think you'll find them pretty inspiring too, so please, read on to learn about Kori, Liza, and Adrijana, and find more stories like these on Obama.org.

Kori Coleman, a 2023 United States Leader, is the founder of D-Composed, a Chicago-based chamber music collective that celebrates Black creativity and culture through the music of Black composers.

Recently, D-Composed made their debut performing with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra! Read our profile of Kori to learn about this special moment and her journey as an Obama Leader.

Liza Zaruba, a 2022-2024 Obama-Chesky Voyager, used her self-designed Summer Voyage to travel to Agbelouve, Togo and Geneva, Switzerland where she worked at organizations tackling health inequality.

These transformative experiences will inform Liza's post-grad goals and influence how she approaches her work to increase health care access. Read the full profile to learn more about Liza's summer and her plans for the future.

Adrijana Hanušić Bećirović

2023 Europe Leader

Adrijana Hanušić Bećirović, a 2023 Europe Leader, is a senior legal advisor at the non-governmental organization Trial International. Through her work, Adrijana works to improve the lives of those whose human rights have been violated, motivated by her own experience during the Bosnian War.

Check out this video to hear about Adrijana's inspiring work in her own words.

Thanks for learning about some of our program participants! For more stories of incredible changemakers, check out our “Stories” page on Obama.org.
