Hey,

It's been great reconnecting with you! As we step into this new school year, we're filled with optimism and excitement for what's ahead.

At Profound Gentlemen, we've always believed in the power of community and the impact that dedicated educators can have on young lives. This journey we're on, supporting and uplifting male educators of color, is one we're deeply committed to, and we're just getting started.

Before we wrap up, we wanted to share one last story that's particularly close to our hearts. Meet Thomas Walker, who is now a Dean of Students. But his journey didn't start here. Years ago, he was a student in the classroom of our Impact Leader, Anthony Brown. Inspired by his teacher's dedication and the belief that he could make a difference, Thomas decided to follow in his footsteps and become an educator himself. Today, he's paying it forward, impacting the lives of his own students, just as Mr. Brown did for him.

Stories like these remind us why we do what we do. The work we do is possible because of the collective support and belief in our mission. Every story we've shared is a testament to the difference we can make together.

Thank you for being part of our journey. If our work resonates with you, we'd love for you to keep us in mind as we continue to grow and impact more lives. Your support, in any form, means the world to us.

Until next time, take care!

With appreciation,
The Profound Gentlemen Team
